

Surprises Hit Pacific Ruth Loop

It took a big boost by the two bottom teams in the Pacific Babe Ruth League standings, but the Tigers have finally moved past the Athletics in a tight pennant chase.

The cellar-dwelling Indians pulled a 6-5 stunner on the Athletics and the fourth-place Orioles took a 10-7 upset victory the past week while the Tigers captured one game to move into the top slot.

Currently the Tigers boast a 9-5 record while the Athletics are 10-6 for the season. The Yankees and Red Sox are tied for third with 8-6 slates, the Orioles are fourth at 7-3 and the Indians are in the cellar with a 2-13 mark.

JEFF LEWIN gained the victory over the Athletics for the Indians, whiffing five men and allowing six hits while his teammates backed him up with a 12-hit barrage.

Levin went four for four at the dish, including one double, while John Wallace, Richard Thomas, and Bruce Muhonen banged two safeties each. Wallace snared two RBIs for his work.

JERRY DUDLEY snared two hits and Larry Tyner doubled for the Athletics.

Against the Orioles, the Athletics fared even worse as Dennis Jones and winning pitcher Glenn Thomas came up with clutch hits in the eighth inning to pull off the upset.

THE TIGERS backed into first by knocking off the Yankees, 11-4. Steve French twirled a four-hitter, fanning nine batters to earn the win.

Leading the Tiger's 15-hit attack were Gordon Mossman, French, Steve Hertzog, Matty Harris, and Pete Jelenski with two hits apiece. French knocked five runs across while Gary Mull enjoyed a perfect three for three day at bat.

For the Yankees, Ed Holmes poked two safeties.

RED SOX mounded ace Dale Reis was too much for the Orioles as he chucked a five-hitter and struck out 11 opponents. Pete Rice, Brian Grady, Bruce Douglas, and Clyde Ford accounted for the four Red Sox hits. Grady doubled for the winners.

For the Orioles, Bruce Lotz, John Englehardt, Emil Derdowski, and Glenn Thompson hit safely. Derdowski doubled for the loser's only extra base blow.

Waters Performs Key Role For National League Cubs

Clutching-pitching Ken Waters was largely responsible for the past week for two victories attributed to the Cubs in Torrance National Little League action.

In a 6-5 victory over the Angels, Waters threw one inning of relieve, hit a first-inning home run, and scored the winning tally on a wild pitch after he had wrangled a walk to get on base.

Three days later, against the same club, Waters teamed with Craig Netteland to chuck a one-hitter and drove in two runs with another first-inning fence-buster.

THE FIRST Cub-Angel contest found Ken and Terry Waters combining for a six-hitter. The two struck out 13 and walked only two men to overshadow a top effort by Chuck O'Brien and Keith Glick.

Both Waters boys responded with an RBI as did Daryl Coast and Craig Netteland. O'Brien hit a home run for the Angels for two runs while Cyd Bailey also pushed across two markers for the losers.

IN THE second engagement, the Waters boys responded with a combined total of three RBIs while John Turmas also clubbed in a run for the Cubs. Bailey drove the only earned Angel run over.

Despite splitting a pair of contests the past week, the Giants still remain on top of the Minor League standings with a 10-3 record. In second place are the Yankees with a 9-4 record while the Phillies are third at 9-5, railing are the Cubs, 8-7; the Angels 6-8; the Braves, 6-8; the Cardinals, 4-10; and the Dodgers, 3-10.

BEHIND the five-hit hurling of Dave Maxwell and Alan Lindsay, the Angels earned a 7-6 upset over the Giants. Ron Lind, Mick Saraceni and Maxwell responded with RBIs for the winners while Frank Maynard and John Rozhon attempted to give losing chucker Don Cook the victory with one run each.

The Giants fared better against the Dodgers, roaring back behind a four-hitter by Frank Maynard for an 8-4 triumph.

Cycles Challenge Track Standards

Motorcycle racing daredevils shoot through a double barreled program this coming holiday week at Ascot Park, Gardena, with the flat-track champs whizzing around the half-mile oval Wednesday night and the steeplechasers jumping the barriers Friday night.

Both programs are forerunners of AMA Grand National championships.

J. C. Agajanian's fifth annual 8-mile dirt track nationals are coming up Saturday night, July 20, with the likes of Ronnie Rall, Mansfield, Ohio; Tony Murguia, Key West, Fla.;

George Roeder, Columbus, Ohio; and Jody Nicholas, Nashville, Tenn., due here to meet Southland kings of the half-mile.

WESTERN RIDERS hold a monopoly on the national 8-miler with Sammy Tanner, Al Gunter (twice) and Neil Keen the winners since Agajanian brought the classic west in 1959.

The 1963 National AMA 50-lap steeplechase has been awarded to Ascot for Sept. 20, following the successful inaugural last fall.

Gable House Bowlers Win Classic Prizes

Six Torrance bowlers are richer today after winning weekly prizes for high series and high game in the Golden State Singles Classic.

Winners from Gable House Bowl in Torrance for the week ending June 23, received $10 for high series (with handicap) and $5 for high scratch game.

Class A winners were Robert Nugent, 688, and Walt Labor, 247. Nick Fuscardo, 627, and Jerry Witt, 210, took class B honors. Winners in the C division were Michael Alexiuk, 598, and Ann Newcomb, 209.

FOR FRIDAY NIGHT Skip Van Leeuwen, the Lakewood Dutchman, is the rider to beat over the twists, turns and jumps in the expert division. Van Leeuwen set records for one lap (47.14) and 15 laps (12m.04.01) in the June TT race at Ascot.

Eddie Mulder of Burbank is the amateur favorite and 10-lap record holder at 8m.14.92s, as well as the open trophy dash record holder at 1m.36.86. Doug Christopher, Los Angeles, holds the 8-lap novice record of 6m.38.53s, and he, too, will be on hand to meet all divisional comers Friday night.

Wednesday night's oval track racing starts at 8:30 p.m., Friday night's steeplechase at 8:15 due to the heavier entry list.

Keggas Near League Lead

Continuing their climb towards the second round championship in the West Coast Slo-Pitch League, the Torrance Tappa Keggas snared a pair of victories over hapless Santa Ana Friday night. After a miserable start in the first half of play, in which they finished second to the perennially strong Los Angeles Old Timers, the Kegs have come back to snatch four straight triumphs.

Since splitting a doubleheader with Gardena in the opening contests of the second round, Torrance has whipped Manhattan Beach and Santa Ana.

ALTHOUGH limited to only four hits in Friday's first game, the Kegs received home runs from Ray Magnante and Gib Matthews to eke out a 2-1 triumph.

Rich Ryan, winner of both contests, did not allow an earned run — and he needed to be sharp, for only Scotty Maxie and Chuck Schoendienst clubbed additional hits for Torrance.

THE SECOND game was a completely different story as the Keggas ripped 15 hits and rang up a 15-0 win in a contest that was called after five frames because of the oneness of the score.

Local Youths Swamp Foes In Tourney

Six Torrance youths emerged victorious in a recent Hole-in-One contest at Hacker's Haven.

Bill Lydon won first place in the 9- to 12-year-old division by shooting within 22 inches of the cup. Debbie Moore took second, 24 feet from the pin, while John Lucarelli finished third, ending 25-feet from the cup.

In the 12- to 16-year-old classification, Jerry Bray shot to within six feet of the cup for first place. Bob Schwartz was second, seven feet away, while Kevin Yomahath hit to within seven feet, five inches of paydirt for third place.

El Toga Shrine Club Ready For Annual Prep Grid Fete

Tickets for Southern California's most attractive summer event — the annual Shrine Pageant and North-South All-Star football game — are being handled in this area by the El Toga Shrine Club.

The colorful spectacle, sponsored by the Al Malaikah Temple and its 60 affiliated Shrine Clubs throughout the southland, will be staged the night of Aug. 1 in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Arthur Golden, chairman of the football committee for the El Toga Club, announced today.

All tickets are reserved and scaled at $5, $3, and $1.50, with net proceeds earmarked for the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, Los Angeles unit.

"ALL SHRINE CLUBS are seeking sellout performances for the 12th renewal of this year's show," Golden said. "The pre-game and half-time intermission presentation will feature a cast of more than 5,000, while the game will find the best Southern California prep gridgers opposing the all-star squad from the northern section of the state."

Elmer P. Bromley, founder of the charity classic, is again serving as overall director, with B. Pat Groom directing the pageant.

"SINCE ITS inception, the Shrine event has grown into an outdoor spectacular now ranked second only to the Tournament of Roses as a West Coast attraction," Golden declared.

Tickets in this area may be obtained through Golden at 1125 W. 162nd St., Gardena, phone DA 4-4836. Tickets also are on sale at the Los Angeles Shrine Pageant headquarters, 655 West Jefferson Blvd., RI 9-0166.

Daredevil Drivers Go at Ascot Park

With Lawndale's Joe Drew once again ahead in the point standings, over 50 cars will take to the field tonight in a nine-event Figure Eight program at Ascot Park in Gardena.

Drew, who lost the point lead two weeks ago, charged right back to the top in last week's racing program on the criss-cross oval. The Lawndale speedster boasts only a 30-point bulge over Ben Steele of Gardena.

Steele has accumulated 690 points while Drew has 720. Leon Garrett, also of Lawndale, is in third place with 650 markers. Garrett has four main events wins to his credit while Drew has compiled five feature triumphs.

RACING WILL begin at 8:30 p.m. with time trials slated for 7 p.m. Also booked in addition to the 15-lap main event are a 10-lap semi-main, four 8-lap heat races, and a 4-lap trophy dash.

An added feature will be a special race of eight laps for women drivers only, with 12 of the girl leadfoots expected to compete.

ENTERED FROM Torrance are Bob Queener, Nestor and Don Silveira, Lee Speaks, Iee Luser, and Frank McEwan. McEwan, winner of last week's main event, is sixth in point standings.

McEwan has 290 points while Nestor Silveira was seventh with 210 digits and Don Silveira had compiled 120 points for 12th place.
